The Sisters of St. Dominic of Amityville Host Virtual Gala

Please join us on Friday, October 23rd for a special dining experience as guests can cook along with Monsignor Jamie Gigantiello, a professionally trained chef and host of NET TV's popular cooking show Breaking Bread, at this year's virtual Dominican Gala. Although we can't gather in person for cocktails and dinner, we can celebrate together remotely!

We are proud to honor Suzanne Pugh, RN, Director of Emergency Services at New York-Presbyterian Queens and Sister Flor de Maria Buruca, OP, founder of an after-school program and summer camp in El Salvador.

The Dominican Gala raises critical funds in order to support the ministries of the Sisters of St. Dominic. In response to the pandemic, a COVID-19 Emergency Ministry Support Fund (MSF) was created to raise funds for our frontline ministries allowing them to deliver emergency supplies to those in need, expand food pantries and meal programs, and provide other forms of direct assistance. With thousands out of work in our local area alone, soaring food insecurity and vulnerable people pushed further to the margins, we need your help to continue our outreach efforts now more than ever! With your support, the Sisters of St. Dominic of Amityville will continue to be a lifeline for those in need.

For more information about tickets, silent auction, 50/50 raffle or sponsorship opportunities, please contact Susan Jappell (631) 842-6000 x 246 or visit: www.sistersofstdominic.org/2020gala. First 300 guests to RSVP will receive 2 complimentary bottles of wine (shipping included). Thank you!

Pastor's Message

October 11, 2020 – 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time/19th Sunday after Pentecost

“Many are called, but few are chosen.” God has called us all to serve and praise Him. There are some for whom this calling seems clear and easy. You would think for example, a religious, priest or sister has heard and is living that calling. Yet, no matter what status, what rank a person has in the eyes of society, he or she must truly internalize the call of God, and live accordingly. Such was the case of the many people of status who had been invited to the glorious wedding feast of the King. They chose, despite their status, or maybe because of the glory they saw too proudly in themselves, not to listen. They were asked repeatedly, but still they turned away in their own vanity, even to the point of killing the messengers of the King. The King in righteous anger, killed them in turn and invited all classes of people to the Feast. One did not come properly attired and was thrown out. The parallels are clear. The Feast represents our salvation. Those who thought they belonged were not worthy. Of the others, only those who came humbly to the table, wearing their best were admitted. The best we can wear to enter the Feast is a garment, that is ourselves, free from sin. Then we can be called and chosen.

11 de octubre de 2020 - 28° Domingo del tiempo ordinario / 19° Domingo después de Pentecostés

"Muchos son llamados, pero pocos son escogidos." Dios nos ha llamado a todos a servirle y alabarle. Hay algunos para quienes este llamado parece claro y fácil. Pensarías, por ejemplo, que un religioso, sacerdote o hermana ha escuchado y está viviendo ese llamado. Sin embargo, no importa qué estatus, qué rango tenga una persona a los ojos de la sociedad, él o ella debe realmente internalizar el llamado de Dios y vivir en consecuencia. Tal fue el caso de muchas personas de prestigio que habían sido invitadas a la gloriosa fiesta de bodas del Rey. Eligieron, a pesar de su estatus, o tal vez por la gloria que veían con demasiado orgullo en sí mismos, no escuchar. Se les preguntó repetidamente, pero aun así se apartaron en su propia vanidad, hasta el punto de matar a los mensajeros del Rey. El Rey con justa ira, los mató sucesivamente e invitó a todas las clases de personas a la Fiesta. Uno no vino debidamente vestido y fue expulsado. Los paralelos son claros. La fiesta representa nuestra salvación. Aquellos que pensaban que pertenecían no eran dignos. De los demás, solo fueron admitidos los que se acercaron humildemente a la mesa, vistiendo sus mejores galas. Lo mejor que podemos usar para entrar a la fiesta es un vestido, es decir, nosotros mismos, libres de pecado. Entonces podemos ser llamados y elegidos.
